

2001 Annual Report Executive Summary

Accomack-Northampton Enterprise Community

The year's activities have been consistent with the EC/EZ Strategic Plan. There have been many on going accomplishments coupled with many struggles. With the coming year each organization and person involved with the EC process are concerned with the economic down turn and the large budget deficient in the new state budget. These two items will affect all of the activities that we have in place.